2008 national tournament

Still going for 12 straight years, the Laser Storm National Tournament was held in Holland, Michigan at the end of this past July. After 2 consecutive years of being held in facilities with the 5.3 system, we've reverted back to the old 3.1 system. Everyone knew this and it was voted on by all of the players who participated in the previous National Tournament.

Destination: Holland, Michigan. The drive took about 6 hours, and Pittsburgh brought 3 whole teams spread out in 4 cars. Everyone stayed in the same hotel which was right across the parking lot from The Lost City Laser Storm facility. Everyone had the luxury of an indoor pool, and free breakfast every morning.

The tournament began with a major decision. Should we have "Top Gun" or should we have another round of seeding? Almost everyone was in favor of another seeding round, so that's what consumed the first 3 days. During those 3 days, many unexpected upsets occurred, and a lot of teams that did terrible the first day started to pull it together by the third day. "Unleashed" from Florida was the only team who went completely undefeated in the round robin.

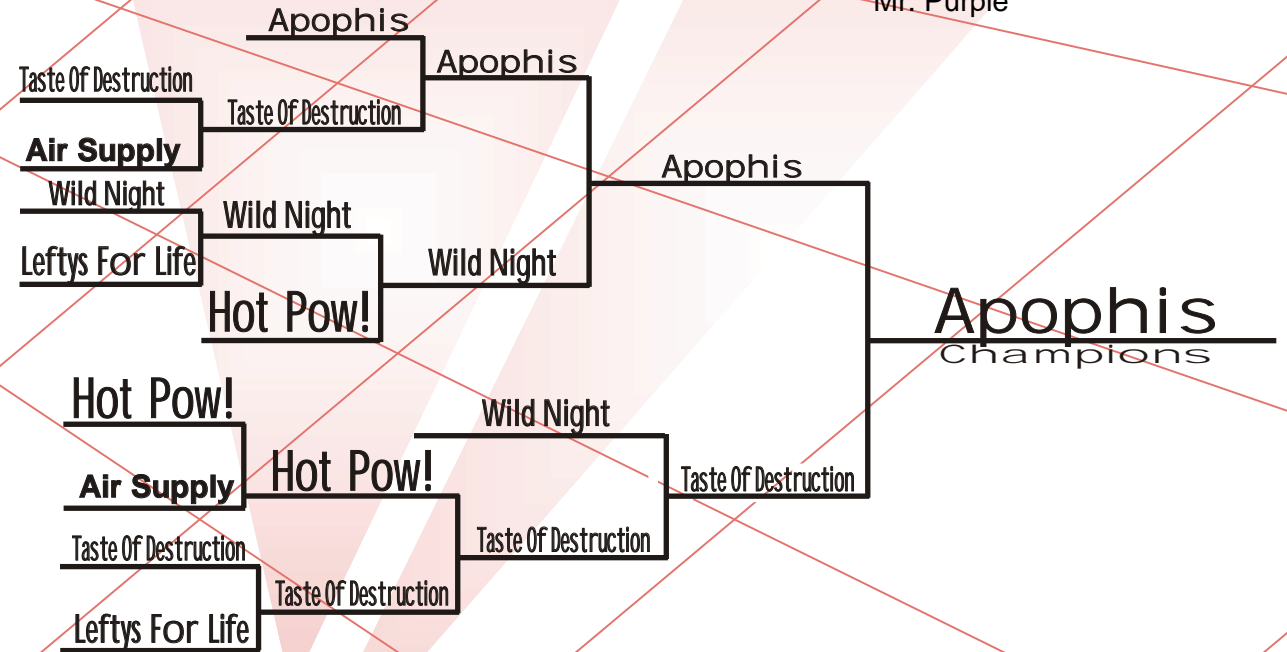

The double elimination on the final day forced "Dump Truck" to face their usual rivals, "Oblivion" from Ohio. Unfortunately for Pittsburgh, no teams places higher than 5th. Final Results were Florida 1st, Ohio 2nd, Michigan(1) 3rd, Michigan(2) 4th, "Dump Truck" 5th, "Retaliation" 6th, "Intense Unibrow" 7th.
